

THE DAILY EDGE ON GEORGIA HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

The Georgia High School Football Daily E-MAIL NEWSLETTER provides you with an up-to-the-minute extensive high school football report, featuring breaking news stories, profiles, team previews and injury reports, recruiting updates and everything you want to know about high school football in the state of Georgia. The content is produced by former Atlanta Journal-Constitution high school experts Todd Holcomb and Chip Saye along with the high school staff of Score Atlanta. The E-MAIL NEWSLETTER opened with more than 2,500 signing up in just the first two weeks and will also include news from the state's governing body over high schools, the Georgia High School Association. This is a great way to connect your company with a strong and vibrant market place, which includes everyone from coaches to parents to those young men and women playing the sports and everyone that follows them. The email will be sent out by 6 a.m. on weekdays and beginning Aug. 1 will be attached to the new GHSA-sponsored website ... GAPREPNEWS.COM.
