

DRIVE FOR THE GHSA STATE TITLE

Last season, Score Atlanta and the Peachtree Sports Network teamed up once more to broadcast 37 Georgia high school football games. The Drive for the GHSA State Title featured 14 of those games, 10 regular season games and four postseason games, with premier matchups every Friday night throughout the season. The average attendance for each game was 5,116, including the season finale between Thomas County Central and Marist that brought more than 6,150 fans to the stands. Across the season, 307,500 homes (768,750 viewers) tuned into these live broadcasts for the Friday night football action. The Atlanta News First app received 89,457 impressions throughout the season and the NFHS Network received 12,079 impressions, while the Score Atlanta website and scoring app averaged over 417,525 impressions every week of the Drive for the GHSA State Title.
