WHY GEORGIA IS ONE OF THE TOP
HOMES FOR HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

GEORGIA'S IMPACT ON FOOTBALL

Georgia High School Football's competitiveness, excitement and star power draws significant attention each season, and the state's ever-growing influence on the college football landscape is spiking interest like never before. The Georgia Drive for the GHSA State Title is celebrating this excellence by broadcasting 31 total games during the 2021 football season. After the conclusion of the 2019 college football season, Steve Slay of the Georgia High School Football Historians Associations released a report that put Georgia High School Football's presence in college football into full perspective. The report found 4,331 former Georgia High School football players were on college rosters during the 2019 season. That number eclipsed 4,400 players in Slay's 2020 list and it was also published that there were 150 former Georgia High School Football players represented on NFL rosters this past season. Starting, Friday, Sept. 3, The Drive for the GHSA State Title has selected 10 of the top matchups to be featured each Friday night leading up to the state playoffs. These games start with three intriguing and star-studded non-region games (Rabun County at Eagles Landing Christian; Collins Hill at Rome; Parkview at Marietta) and then will feature the matchup between Lee County and Warner Robins on Sept. 24. The next six Friday nights will be a non-stop slate of region contests between championship contenders and seasoned playoff programs (Hughes at Westlake, Creekview at River Ridge, North Cobb at Walton, Milton at Roswell, Denmark at Gainesville, Brookwood at Parkview). All six of these region games are rematches of last year (Westlake 26, Hughes 21; River Ridge 20, Creekview 17 OT; North Cobb 35, Walton 18; Milton 20, Roswell 14; Denmark 24, Gainesville 21; Brookwood 35, Parkview 25).

Mays vs. Cherokee

Mays became the first Atlanta Public School to play in the Corky Kell Classic in 2018 and will be making its fourth-straight appearance in the event. The Raiders are still searching for their first Corky Kell victory and they will be taking on a tough Cherokee team out of the gates. Quintavius Johnson threw four touchdown passes and ran in a team-high eight touchdowns last season as a freshman and will be a key contributor returning to lead the Mays offense. Cherokee will have its leadership and offensive firepower back in 2021. Class of 2022 quarterback AJ Swann is back after tossing 2,194 yards, 21 touchdowns and five interceptions and he will have running back Keith Adams Jr. returning to the backfield to balance out the Warriors offense. Adams racked up 1,313 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns this past season as a junior.

Carver-Atlanta vs. West Forsyth

In the back-end of Wednesday's double-header, West Forsyth tight end Oscar Delp will take the field with a Wolverines team that won the Region 6 title last season and advanced to the state quarterfinals before falling to eventual state champion Grayson. Delp is the No. 25 overall prospect in the state for the Class of 2022 and is listed as a 4-star prospect. Carver-Atlanta also lost to an eventual state champion (Pierce County) in last year's Class 3A quarterfinals and returns the bulk of its defense, including middle linebacker and the leading tackler in 2020, Dialo Mosley. The Class of 2022 standout earned All-Region Defensive Newcomer of the Year in 2019 and was an All-State First Team selection in 2020 with his 6-foot-2, 215-pound frame.

CORKY KELL CLASSIC

Tucker returns Class of 2022 prospect Omari Gordon to the backfield. This past season, Gordon racked up 161 rushing yards off of 29 carries in the Tigers' massive 42-6 win over Morrow.

Johns Creek linebacker Thaxton Gallagher is a 6-foot-2, 220-pound prospect that averaged 7.9 tackles per game in 2020 and closed the season out with 13 tackles for loss. This will be the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Gainesville enters the season with a school-record 21-consecutive playoff appearances—giving them one of the longest active postseason streaks in the state. GREAT ATLANTA BASH

FRIDAY, AUG. 27 (game played at Eddie S. Henderson Stadium)

North Atlanta at Midtown

North Atlanta has burst to the scene over the past couple seasons and looks to contend out of the star-studded Region 4-6A this season. The Warriors posted a school-record 7-4 finish in 2019 and then stacked up well against the likes of Tucker, Hughes, Westlake and Lovejoy this last season in their new region landscape. Midtown, formerly known as Grady High School, will look to snap a four-game losing streak to North Atlanta. In last year's meeting, North Atlanta stormed out to a 28-0 halftime lead before celebrating a 35-0 win—marking the largest margin of victory for the Warriors in series history. The Grey Knights are led by former Mays assistant coach Kevin Clark—who is tasked with bringing the program back to the level of success they experienced as recently as 2016 when the Grey Knights capped a 10-2 season and Region 6-5A championship.

FRIDAY, OCT. 15

North Cobb at Walton

Cobb County rivals Walton and North Cobb will be the game featured on Friday, Oct. 15. North Cobb earned the Region 3-7A title this past season and Walton went on to secure the No. 2 seed. Walton owns an 11-9 all-time record in the series, but was defeated by the Warriors 35-18 in last year's contest that led to the Warriors clinching a No. 1 seed in the playoffs. North Cobb defensive end Joshua Josephs is a 4-star prospect currently ranked No. 29 in the state for the Class of 2022. North Cobb's only regular season loss came to North Gwinnett this past year and the Warriors advanced to the second round of the state playoffs before falling to Lowndes in a 21-13 heartbreaker.

FRIDAY, OCT. 22

Milton at Roswell

Milton and Roswell have seen their long-time rivalry intensify over the past few seasons. Roswell owns the all-time series 38-27-1, but has dropped three of the last four meetings and each of the last two. Milton's roster features Class of 2023 defensive end Lebbeus Overton—who will likely be the No. 1 prospect in the nation when the Class of 2023 rankings are finalized. Overton was busy this spring helping the Milton basketball team win the Class 7A state title. Overton's athleticism is truly elite and he posted 21.5 sacks last season as a sophomore. This followed his 105-tackle, 19-sack freshman season—putting him on pace to be one of the most effective pass rushers to ever come through the state of Georgia.

Denmark at Gainesville

Denmark finished second in Region 6-7A ahead of Gainesville this past season and won its first-ever playoff game in program history under first-year head coach Mike Palmieri. The Danes' historic season included a dramatic 24-21 victory over Gainesville. In just three seasons of existence, Denmark has quickly emerged as a top tier program and 2020 was the program's most dominant defense to date. The Red Elephants and Denmark both joined Class 7A last year for the first time and will look to make more noise in 2021 after a year of experience. Gainesville made it to the first round of last year's playoffs before falling short 21-14 to Archer. All five of Gainesville's losses last season were one-possession games.

As for the defense, Georgia-commit and 4-star Marquis Groves-Killebrew will be tasked with trying to slow down Parkview. Brookwood owns the all-time series 23-16 and the two programs have split their last six meetings and have also gone 5-5 in their previous 10 showdowns. Parkview has won four all-time state titles (1997, 2000-02) to the Broncos' two state crowns (1996, 2010).
