

GREAT ATLANTA BASH

Atlanta is welcoming back its signature high school football event on Friday, August 23 at 8 p.m. as Mill Creek and Norcross will take to the gridiron in the sixth-annual Great Atlanta Bash. The Hawks are coming off a 12-1 season that resulted in a Region 8-7A championship, and took home the Class 7A state title back in 2022. The hosting Blue Devils went 9-3 last season, and finished atop Region 7-7A. The matchup will be broadcast live on the Peachtree Sports Network, and streamed digitally on the Atlanta News First app and the National Federation High School Network. Last year's Bash, which was played at Eddie S. Henderson Stadium, brought more than 17,625 fans to the stands. More than 59,700 homes (171,256 viewers) tuned in to the live broadcast, and the Atlanta News First app generated 20,143 digital impressions while the NFHS Network received over 500 impressions. During the week of the Great Atlanta Bash, the Score Atlanta website and scoring app received over 186,261 impressions. This year's Bash is expected to generate extensive media coverage, with two of the premiere programs in Georgia facing off under the Friday night lights.
